

PRECISION TX

Would you like to get rid of your double chin or jowls, but do not want to go through the expense or downtime of a facelift? If you answered yes to any of these questions, you could be a candidate for revolutionary, state of the art treatment with laser. Precision Tx uses laser technology to melt fat and tighten skin in smaller areas such as the face and neck. It is ideal for problems such as double chin, jowls, and loose neck skin.
